1. Every reservist in a village near Trhove Sviny (049/R05) had to present his soldier's book (Vojensky prukoz) to the Local National Committee (MNV) during October 1954. Rumors spread among the reservists that the locality where they would have to report in case of mobilization would be put down into their soldier's books. The Local National Committee in this village expects to receive military uniforms for all reservists living in the village in the near future. [REDACTED] stored in the village, and will be assigned to the [REDACTED] case of mobilization.¹
2. The number of MIG jet planes at the Ceske Budejovice (049/Q96) airfield increased considerably recently. Whereas previously 14 or 16 jet planes were seen in the air daily, in October 1954 usually 24 MIG-type planes conducted training in groups in the Ceske Budejovice area nearly every day.
